How might we?

How might we enable real estate owners to indicate interest in selling property without actively listing their property?

Idea Pitches

Online platform + Create a warehouse space where people can rent and utilize tools to build modularly

Website for owners to coordinate with other lots and plan to sell together. So if some owners are selling they are enabled to reach out to other owners in nearby lots. Remember that these owners who ARE actively selling have a lot of incentives to get nearby owners to sell as well.

Create a real estate developer's one stop shop, that connects developers to experts in the various disciplines required for property development
